Scope Note and Content:

This collection consists of a group of nine photographic prints and a negative, all black and white. All of these items depict the same photograph, the subject of which is a Paterson NJ historical marker, erected by D.A.R. While all of the prints are the same subject, they differ in darkness and backgrounds, which seems to indicate that the photographer was experimenting with the development of the above mentioned negative.

The photographer and the exact date of the photograph are both unknown, however the associated number of 1956.300 (which was assigned to the pictures when they were in the possession of the Nashua Historical Society) seem to indicate that the photographs were taken around the early 1950s.
